

Proposing new members is essential to achieving Rotary's goals of providing community and international service. As a Rotarian, one of your primary responsibilities is to help identify and propose new members.

Contribute to your club's membership by bringing in qualified business and professional leaders who are interested in and committed to advancing the mission of Rotary. Together with your fellow Rotarians, you can help your club fully represent your community's business and professional life.

Use this form to propose a new member. You'll be strengthening your club and ensuring its growth and longevity. Please make sure all information is legible.

Identifying Qualified Candidates

Before you submit your proposal, have you...

- Identified for Rotary membership adults of good character and good business and professional reputation
- Determined the prospect holds an executive position with discretionary authority in a recognized business or profession.
- Encouraged the prospective member to tour the RI Web site, www.rotary.org
- Determined from Executive Board the appropriate classification
- Presented your club's projects and programs to the prospective member
- Completed and signed Part A of the Membership Proposal Form
- Provided the prospective member with information about membership benefits and responsibilities
- Invited prospective member to a club meeting, activity or a service project
